

Requesting Addition of New Service to Existing License

About the Service/Feature

This service aims to add a new (qualified) trust service or trust service to a valid TSP or (Q)TSP license.

Service steps

- Step 1 → Application submission through available service provision channels.
- Step 2 → Filling out the application form and providing the required data and documents
- Step 3 → Fee payment through the available payment channels
- Step 4 → Application receipt and review by TDRA
- Step 5 → Obtaining the license

Category	Variation
Type	Transactional
Expected Time	Within 30 days from the date of application completion.
Fees
Audience	(Qualified) Trust Service Providers licensed by TDRA
About	This service aims to add a new (qualified) trust service to a valid TSP or (Q)TSP license.
Channels	Portal Smart App Email
Payment Channels	E-Payment Bank Transfer
Terms & conditions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The application fee is non-refundable, regardless of application outcome, whether approved or rejected. - TDRA reserves the right to reject applications not meeting requirements within 60 days from the submission date. - If approved, the service will be added to the current license without changing the license expiration date. - Upon approval, issuance is contingent upon advance payment of application fees, depending on the number and type of services, as per the fees list.
Required Documents	Not Available

Results Require Office Visit	No
Service package	Trust Service Provider License
Service Complexity Level	Complex Service
Service Outcome	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Trust Service Provider License ▪ Qualified Trust Service Provider License ▪ Amendment to the UAE Trust List
Service Connectivity With Other Services	The service is linked to "Trust Service Provider License" service
Service Limitation	(Qualified) Trust Service Providers licensed by TDR